Workshops

Orientation for the new parents

Parents of special needs children attending an awareness programme where they were given guidelines of how to cope with the daily activities of their wards.

Celebrating Mothers day

An awareness programme in rural villages by AnjaReil from Germany

April 19TH: A workshop was held by Anja for restoring the women's dignity and sense of worth. The main aim was to break down negative and damaging taboos associated with menstruation. For that purpose Tender Heart hired gynaecologists and sex educators who spoke to the women about topics related to menstruation and hygiene.

Additionally, we distributed free reusable sanitary napkins made by our own women empowerment group.

Women's Profile

Maya, from Bhatola Village' has been with us for three years. She is the proud grandmother of three children from her two daughters. Maya's speciality is making beautiful flags. Maya spends the money she earns from Tender Heart on her grandchildren whom she adores. Thank you Maya for your work

Student's Profile

She is Priyanka (Pinky) and has had the opportunity to move from WOOPIE (slum) program to Tender Heart Regular School. She is very excited about her schooling at Tender Heart. Thank you donors for providing such opportunity to these children.
