Food Drive

Tender Heart, in collaboration with Aruna Abhey Oswal Trust, provided midday meals to 1,000 WOOPIE children from and around Bhatola village.

UCLA Health Camp

On July 4th, Tender Heart welcomed 24 students from UCLA who performed 9 health camps over the span of 21 days. Proper hygiene measures, the distribution of medications, and health examinations were performed by the UCLA students to the people of the local villages. We are grateful for their presence and education they were able to supply our community with.

Tender Heart looks forward to future collaborations to supply food to the WOOPIE children and local villages.

Independence Day Celebrations!

On August 11th Independence Day was celebrated at Tender Heart with songs, dances, and chants of pride performed by the children. Prior to the main event the children had rehearsed and spent many hours of preparation for their performances, and they were thrilled to see their efforts pay off. Children of different age groups reenacted the events leading up to India's independence. The Tender Heart family including all faculty, staff, volunteers and students, celebrated the pride and joy for this country together!

Raksha Bandhan!

Raksha Bandhan is a holiday to celebrate the bond between brothers and sisters. To share the value of this festival, Tender Heart was honored to have Brahma Kumari's sisters of Om Shanti tie Rakhis for all the school children. The children were informed of the significance of a brother's protection of their sisters and the symbolism of the Rakhi tying.

Women's Profile

Anju Singh, age 35 from Mainpuri Village in Uttarpradesh has four children. Anju supports her three daughters and one son by being a fulltime cook for 6 years.
